The Declaration of Human Rights records that everyone has the right to education, health, employment, housing... and that governments will provide resources for it...

...but the reality is different.

House that is his day were alive

Today are in ruins.

Abandoned house by failing to meet the cost.

In recent years there has been an increase in poverty and with in an increase in homelessness.

Unfortunately the problem is increasing.

The governments try to implement disproportionate tax sheltered housing as a measure to alleviate the crisis.

A large crowd of people is gathered in a city square at night. In the foreground, a man in a striped shirt stands with his back to the camera, speaking into a microphone. To his right, a DJ setup with a laptop and mixer is visible. A blue banner with white text and a logo is laid out on the ground. The crowd, consisting of people of various ages, is standing and watching the event. The scene is illuminated by streetlights and building lights in the background.

The working class refuses to accept these measures.
Families who have nothing will go into the street.

A photograph of a multi-story building under construction. The building has a grey, textured facade and many rectangular window openings. Scaffolding and construction cranes are visible on the left side of the building. In the foreground, there is a blue corrugated metal fence. The sky is clear and blue. The text is overlaid in white, serif font.

As we increasingly impoverish others increase their wealth.
A clear example of this is the speculation.

A photograph of a multi-story concrete building under construction. The structure features a grid of vertical columns and horizontal beams. Scaffolding is visible on the sides, and a crane is partially visible in the background. The sky is clear and blue. A sign is visible in the lower-left corner of the image.

It is estimated that there are about 3 million empty homes across Spain more than enough for everyone.

The village is grouped...

The people rise...

The people just want their rights respect and liberties.

A photograph showing a person lying on their back on a rough, uneven ground. The person is wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt and red pants. Their head is resting on the ground, and their arms are bent. The background is a blurry, textured surface, possibly a dirt road or a construction site. The image is framed by a yellow border on the left and top, and a green border on the right.

The extreme poverty who are excluded for the people is indeed a sad reality

Let's stop this;

Together we can to change this reality.

No homeless person.
Home without any people.
