

Employment is the best social security for the people, if...

it is sufficient for their livelihood.

Guaranteed employment can exceed the people from the poverty line wage.

There should be Minimum Wage Law and basic income ...

it protects the people in unstable work.

If young people are unemployed for three months...

they must be given either training or a job

Transitional labour markets should not create any social marginalization.

In order to support the right to work, society and companies should target more resources to be able to fulfill the demand of labour

Socially responsible corporates and public enterprises should be supported in order to recruit workers

Unions should increase opportunities to recruit more workers

Work must be guaranteed
for example:

Employment opportunities created by third sector (non profit organizations) should not be paid by itself.

The duration of the employment relationship should be long enough, so that it would guarantee the continuation of the earning related allowance.

Long-term unemployed need a health survey ...

customers and employees should consider together the ability and restrictions of workers.

The power of the Nordic welfare state comes from strangers caring for strangers.
