

Special European Seminar on fuel and food insecurity

EAPN France is organizing a Special European Seminar dedicated to fuel and food poverty on 1st June, in Paris. The goal of this special day is to exchange with and for people experiencing poverty in the different EU member states, as well as to compare the responses provided by their governments and the EU.

It is organised in partnership with EAPN Ireland, EAPN Spain, EAPN Germany, EAPN Czech Republic and EAPN Netherlands. There will be live interpretation in English, Spanish, German and Czech for non French speakers.

This seminar will take place in Paris and by videoconference. It will be divided into 2 half-day long sessions, dedicated respectively to food poverty (from 10 to 12.45am) and fuel poverty (from 2 to 4.30pm).

EAPN France is the French branch of EAPN (European Anti Poverty Network), the largest European network of anti-poverty organisations.
